

Required Materials for the Course

What You Need for BA 511 Financial Accounting for fall 2017

The course content for this course is based on Financial accounting 9/e by Libby and supplemented with Connect software, both published by McGraw-Hill. Connect is an online Assignment and assessment software you'll use to complete the practice problems. Once registered you'll have access to a static eBook and an adaptive eBook: Smart book/Learnsmart. The software works similar to ALEKS: as it provides feedback on your work, a solution and refers you to the section in the eBook that explains the subject. You have two purchase options listed below.

Where to Get It:

Print option- Both PSU bookstores are selling for $120, a discounted loose-leaf version of the textbook packaged with a Connect code (ISBN # 9781260248302)

Or

Online - All DIGITAL: You can purchase Connect (no print book, but includes the complete ebook and access to all course content) directly from the Connect course URL for $90. Registration directions below.

How to Register for Connect

1. Copy and paste the following URL into a new browser window:
2. <http://connect.mheducation.com/class/d-givoly-mmol--fall-2017>
3. Click the “Register Now” Button. Note that registration opens August 14th,2017.
4. Enter your email address.
  - a. If you already have a McGraw-Hill account you will be prompted for your password.
  - b. If you do not have a McGraw-Hill account you will be asked to create one.
5. If you selected the Print option above enter the 20 digit code from the Connect Code in the “Have a registration code” and complete the registration. Once registered you'll have access to the eBook and Connect for 6 months.
6. If you're comfortable with just an eBook (the Online-All DIGITAL option) Select “buy online option” (valid credit Card required) and complete the registration.
7. If you wish to test drive the all-digital version you can select the 14-day “Start Courtesy Access” option by selecting it. You will be prompted to upgrade to full Connect access before your courtesy access period expires and will be reminded to do so. You must purchase full Connect access in order to maintain access to your course assignments and the eBooks. Complete the registration form, and click “Submit”.
